

How to be a good Trans Ally

Trans people make up less than 0.5% of the population, yet receive a disproportionate amount of negative attention, from both the media and politicians. Standing alongside them makes the difference between thriving and barely surviving.

Tue 19 November, 1pm – 3pm, Derby Homes

This workshop, developed in conjunction with our regional LGBT+ Self-Organised Group, looks at:

- UNISON's policies and general awareness of how UNISON approaches this issue
- Inclusive language
- How to challenge Trans discrimination
- Practical tips on being an ally
- ...and a little bit of history
